From the National Intelligencer. " Satisfaction in Some Way."

"Can honor set a leg?" The manner in which honest Jack Falstaff propounded this interrogatory plainly indicated that his opinion was in the negative. He "liked not the glittering honor" Sir Walter had. He utterly repudiated the Hotspur theory of the subject and took his course for the more practical good things of this life, without much regard to mere sentiment. He fought in the field. it is true, but quickly declined the duello neace : the passions of man defy all her some way !" gentle instruction, and our city is convulsed with talk of "satisfaction" among the very fathers of the Senate. Our last "notes," to our deep regret, must not be attaned to thoughts of love, but to jarring words, and, it may be, the "notes" of combatants, which, however politely phrased, cover the most deadly, unsparing

The argument of the piece runs on this Pacific mail steamship Hermann : wise: Mr. Nye, of Nevada, rose to continue were uncalled for. His speech was ostenmeant to be a contribution to the war on the Rhode Island Senator. After a very love and charm : "Let us have peace."-Abbott's peace was nicely sandwiched betheen slices of war.

Barnside and assail Governor Sprague, our got away. new "traveled" Senator was ready with As soon as the extent of the danger became poured on him that day reminded him of Newell and his chief officer, Mr. Chase. an attack by two dogs-"a large mastiff and a mongrel puppy dog. The little followed by his larger companion."

his diminutive companion.

be to ask who was the mongrel dog? His 16th, at 4 o'clock p. m. an interesting branch of study.

To Mr. Abbott the matter presented itself in an altogether different aspect. It ficed to put him in good humor, as it does most men. In the evening he returned to that portion of the coast. the charge, came back on Mr. Sprague, shall not mar by change

"What I did intend to do was to ask the Sena- together by the machinery. tor from Rhode Island if he meant to apply the erm 'puppy' to me, as is implied in the connecion of that language; and if he did intend to apvit to me, my purpose was to ask him for a reraction as full as the implication of the language, [that would depend much on the size of the dog; and if he refused that retraction, my ntention was to ask for satisfaction out of the

We could hardly believe our own ears. Were we to have the code back again in the halls of Congress; and do revolutions self and Mr. Abbott, Mr. Sprague said, to- apologize or fight. go backward? The civilized world is day: "I merely drew an illustration of two much divided, indeed, on the subject of dogs, which I actually met, and which acthe duello. In old times it was a general tually treated me and I them as I stated custom of Christendom. Wellington, Can- in my speech. I made the illustration bening, and others fought not many years cause it saved a long argument and made ago, as did Clay, Randolph, Hamilton, my speech shorter. I made no application conspicuous public men; and others de-clared that they were ready to come to time if needed or invited. In England the duel ply it by implication to himself, and has, is now out of fashion, save in the army and by a process which I care not to analyze, navy, where it still exists, and in Ireland actually chosen the meanest dog of the the law to them that they were barbarians intended to speak or what they intended expression to-day; but, as I said before, would be told to mind his own business. to say. I intend to be diverted by no per- he has not. In this country the duel, though rarer at sonal quarrel from bringing my plan beis still an institution there, so much ob- I will fight the whole capoodle of them, served that Radical papers are never tired singly or alone, just as they wish. I do of making this an occasion of denunciation not believe that any man thinks I am a of the Southerners. It is, forsooth, "a coward. I have been under fire, and have relie of barbarism, an offshoot of the old been wounded. I do not think my courslavery oligarchy, a proof of a diabolical, age admits question or needs vindication blood thirsty spirit," &c., &c.

character are nothing whether it be a to avoid my daily walks, and if I am atmen, are to be condoned with light punish- no not believe in it, and will not recognize with the public, leaving me branded as a with the request that should anything furnish a better one.

rested on his victim. .

that "he would have satisfaction outside very unconcerned this afternoon, and was doubt that Mr. Sprague really intended to of the Chamber in some way "-sound unmolested. Mr. Abbott is reported as compare you to a puppy? much like invitations to the police to in- still intending to smack Sprague's chops. terfere and stop the loss of valuable lives, Without exaggeration, and most seriously, Have you seen the Globe, sir? (faking and the wear and tear of carpet-bags. - it is believed that if he does Sprague will up a copy of that paper and looking over own admirable city bar. In satisfaction laugh comes in. It is also felt that he will am reminded of another little illustration, for this good advice we crave no fee, but be constrained to try to carry out his words and then he goes on to tell a story about only permission to illustrate by a story this and that if he does he will be killed. On chancing to visit a farmhouse and encounwhen the "true prince" set upon him; way." It is the old story of the boy who some unromantic justice binds him over to how the puppy dog bit at his heel, and but, then, all men are "cowards in the ran to his father with the account of his keep the peace. This old question of "honor" returns ber was appalling, but under cross-exami- gives the following version of an interview panion. If his comparison meant any to yex us once more, even now, while nation the young rascal finally dropped Nature puts on her mildest, sweetest, most down until he made a final stand: "Father, loving aspects. In vain does she plead for I will swear I saw one cat." Satisfaction in

Shipwreck on the Japanese Coast.

of Two Hundred Lives Reported Lost.

The Japan Herald of February 24 gives the following account of the loss of the

The steamer Hermann left Yokohoma on the the war which for some time has been in | 13th instant at noon, with wind northeast blowprogress between himself and Senator ing fresh, for Awamori, a port near Hakodate Sprague, and had his say. Mr. Abbott, of under Japanese charter, with some 490 Japanese North Carolina, asserting himself as a rep-all told. At half-past five p. m. they had reach-His countenance was serene and his manresentative of a State which is just now ed a point about six miles east of Cape King, this fray; it did not concern him; but in weather; the vessel was kept along the coast at sion. He looked as if he expected the lion on her good behavior, had no business in wind north-northeast and heavy southwest he went, carpet-bag in hand, dealing with miles. At nine p. m., the vessel going at average a-well, fig-whether he did or not. Close the other very rude and offensive blows at speed, struck a reef and passed over it, drifting by the Senator, and reclining in a rocking the Rhode Island Senator. The imputa- in shore a quarter of a mile after she struck. At tions of Mr. Abbott were as gross as they this time the wind was blowing fresher with a sibly to vindicate Gen. Barnside, but re- from the davits into which some of the terrified ally it went far beyond this, and was passengers and crew jumped as they were drifting from the vessel's side and were almost directfierce assault he exclaimed -what does the some of the crew, but sad to relate, one only of white. reader suppose? Why, those words of these fetched the shore, the other two having been swamped almost as soon as away from the Mark the sequel, and observe how Mr. wreck. Some 13w of the crew from the capable sofa. succeeded in reaching land in safety left the illfated vessel at half-past eleven p. m. About Conscious that " he had stepped out of midnight the vessel parted amidships and set-an admirable explanation. He defended apparent the whole of the life belts-of which General Burnside because he had been the there were great abundance-were got on deck Senator. General Burnside because he had been the and distributed among the passengers, many of the lirst to invade North Carolina. A capital whom at once precipitated themselves into the safe and sound, and in the land of the lividea : but who else would have thought | sea in the hope of reaching land, now distant about three-quarters of a mile, but the coast be-Mr. Sprague returned at his two assail- ing rugged and a heavy surf running, it is fearlared, among other things, that the tirade | remained on the vessel, among whom were Cap off with some Japanese fishing boats for the wreck | a duel. dog moved on with rapidity from behind, to rescue those who had remained. At this time bit at his heels, and, frightened at his nothing was visible above water but the paddle temerity, ran howling and crying away, boxes and upper gear, and many of the unfortu-followed by his larger companion." sir? ollowed by his larger companion."

Said Mr. Sprague: "The Senate will ed. The stated number of lives lost is not yet observe that the mongrel, whining puppy, accurately known as the survivors belonging to encouraged by the mastiff, and embol- the vessel left the scene of their disaster at 2 p. dened to make attack from the shadow of the catastrophe. They were compelled to set out his backer, ran rapidly away, alarmed at on their journey on foot, in consequence of the his temerity, while the overgrown cur fol- Japanese refusing to supply them with a junk in lows after, with ears lopped and tail be-tween his legs, to a place of safety beside they stayed at Otaki, where they were most kindsupplied them with food, clothing and lodings .-Now, the first question that any one The following morning they started again for Yowould naturally raise on reading this would kohoma, which was reached on Tuesday, the

Among those of the crew who are lost are Mr. istence, and future state, if any, would be wreck during the dreadful night of the accident ; Mr. White, water sender, who lost his life from the and 250 passengers are reported to be missing. was a question of wounded honor. He on the life belts, made for the shore, which they iked not the style of Mr. Sprague's simili- may possibly have reached at points higher or Nothing whatever was saved from the wreck, nothing of the ill-fated vessel was visible but the | Sprague or any other man. mainmast and one paddle wheel, which were held

The Sprague-Abbott Feud.

THE INLERVIEW WITH SENATOR SPRAGUE.

Interview with the Two Senators.

Despatch to the N. Y. World. Washington, April 23, 1869. In regard to the difficulty between him-Jackson, Benton, and many of our most to any Senator by word, look, tone, or therefore I shall not attempt to get engag-In this highly moral view assaults upon ed in a street brawl; but I do not intend ment, if any; but duelling must be punishit. I recognize self-defence, however, as puppy—a mongrel puppy. I did not feel the first law of nature. I do not care to disposed to let the matter so rest. I felt be posted. The Senator smiled knowingly. It was strange, therefore, to hear this live long. I have no fondness for a long New England Senator hold forth language life, and I have no particular ties to bind like this savoring of the code. What me here; but I intend to live long enough could it mean? Three years only in North to get my plan through, or at least under-Carolina, and had he already acquired the stood before the people. It is right; it is asking an opportunity for a public extruculent ways of the 'slaveholding oligar-certain to prevail. I had no vanity in proplanation. Had Sprague been present thy" and become practically a champion posing it. I have studied it out, and have of the code? If the righteous can scarcely come to it alone, but I have tried to have be saved, what shall become of the sin- others than I propose it I talked it over ner? The problem troubled us. The to members of Congress. I saturated comonly way we could account for this change mittees with it. I tried to influence all the Cabinet with it. I strove to get it through the head of the President, but he They only expect to be gone a day or two, is a gone case, and the politicians own and a single change of linen is sufficient. him. What did I encounter? Argument? If this does not explain it, we do not know Answer? No, but personal abuse and how it can be explained. Let somebody ridicule, and a family war upon my business. Then I retorted, and showed that I But this lawless spirit, this "relic of the put Anthony himself into the Senate; that slaveholders," found a fit rebuke. Uprose I paid the requisite taxes of $10,000 which Mr. Sumner to admonish the sinner. For were necessary to elect Burnside Governor. a moment there was great excitement. In He stands to-day on my pocket-book, and imagination the Senate already beheld the now I am supreme in Rhode Island. I was Senator from Rhode Island lying dead re-elected Senator without a dissenting upon the field, his antagonist-from North vote. Democrats and Republicans voted Carolina, shall we say?-standing about for me to a man. My man, Seth Padelten paces off, with a discharged pistol in ford, is to succeed Burnside for Governor. his hand and a look of remorse as his eyes I receive letters every day from all parts of my State declaring that I am endorsed. But this was only for a moment. The I intend to stay in Washington all summer Senate had been unduly excited. Mr. and "fight it out on this line." This is what Abbott had spoken merely in a Pickwick- Mr. Spraguesaid. He talks in his parlor with lan sense. "He was not educated as a great readiness and fluency, and gets on we would not be hampered by rules and with Senator Abbott :

INTERVIEW WITH SENATOR ABBOTT. Leaving Sprague's abode your corresthe good looking, large chested and bellig. fortune, not his fault. erent Abbott. Senator Abbott has his Loss of the Steamship Hermann_Upwards comfortable looking house, where he re- son, Senator? ceives his friends with something like the to the Senator's presence he found him en- -[smiling,] -and, as such, have only to sconced in an easy chair placed by an open look after that little animal. window commanding a view of all the passers on the street. His position suggested justification for using such terms. the idea of a general on the lookout, for NOT BEING A YANKEE, MR. ABBOTT SEEKS he was so placed that he could easily ascerner showed not the least sign of apprehena distance, judging from all appearances, of five of Rhody might come, but he did not care chair, perfectly at his ease, was a gentleheavy swell from the southwest. At eleven o'- man of color, who evidently enjoyed the clock three of the ship's boats were washed away friendship and esteem of Mr. Abbott. The colored gentleman enjoyed the glorious privilege of Senatorial condescension. Dily capsized; the three remaining boats were low- rectly opposite Mr. Abbott was a spectaered and immediately filled with passengers and cled gentleman named Martin, who was

"Walk in, Mr. -," said the Senawreck. Some faw of the crew from the capsized | tor ; "take a seat, sir," motioning to a

"I find it is unnecessary to ask you one question, at all events," said your corres- Senate. Conscious that " he had stepped out of the down on a level with the hurricane dack; she had, however, broken in two before the last boat discover any wounds or marks of a recent pondent, inspecting the Senator closely to combat.

"What is that, sir?" interrogated the Correspondent. Whether you are still hand?

ants with much spirit and effect. He deants with much spirit and effect. He The following moraing at daylight, the weath. of startling stories to-day, and one of them marks of Sprague early in the day. Sprague s more, you were shot all to pieces.

glad to find myself put together again.

stand there has been no collision as yet, HE SHALL HEAR FROM ME IN THE MORNING. bribes and fraudulent use of the Associated Press Senator? Senator. Precisely, sir. No collision has occured, sir. But-(and here the Senaly and hospitably received by the Japanese, who | tor became serious-this much I want understood by Senator Sprague and his friends-that he must make a retraction, as broad as the implication, that I am a puppy, or whatever else it was he applied antecedents, mode of existence and sub- Chase, the first officer, who was swept off the to me in his remarks yesterday. I am no duelist, as I said in my personal explanacapsizing of one of the boats, while 18 of the crew tion last night, but I can suffer no man As we have already stated, many, after putting

As we have already stated, many, after putting
As we have already stated, many, after putting
He must either retract, sir, or I will put him upon a public disgrace, which will tudes. Not even a good dinner had suf- lower than where the others landed. But little follow him through life. I came from a hope, however, is entertained for their safety, on | State where people are not in the habit of account of the heavy surf and dangerous rocks at pocketing insults. The people of my State The other day I saw by your paper he would think very strangely of me were I and defined his position in words that we and when the survivors started for Yokohoma to submit tamely to the affront of Mr.

Correspondent. A good deal of the old chivalry is left in North Carolina yet, Sen-

Correspondent. What is your town not very hard upon Sprague.

Senator? Senator. Wilmington. Mr. Martin there pointing to the white gentleman opposite) knows what the people in that town think else against me, for he came to me one day about such matters. Why, sir, if I were to with a piece of paper and lead pencil in lie under this insult, my people would his hand, and coolly asked me what State turn me out of the State whenever I might I was from. This was about the time he show my face there, to-day, Senator? Senator. No, sir; I have not. I have there is yet a weakness for the old ways, two. Nye didn't assume the other dog .- remained here most of the day, expecting though we suppose the thirty-nine articles He was two sharp for that. No other Sen- that gentleman or some of his friends would of the Galway code are not so rigidly held ator except Mr. Abbott made any applica- send some message, but up to this moment as of yore. Cross the British channel and tion, and his doing so is not my fault.— have not received a line or call. When I which is your State." I replied, "Nor do behold all changed. In France, Italy, The illustration was in my written speech, found Sprague had left the Senate, I ac-Spain, Germany, men do fight duels every and I could not know that either Mr. Ab- cused him of skulking away, and naturally think, now, you had better go some place day, and an American who would lay down bott, Mr. Nye, or any other man thought he would take some notice of that else and look up the information you are Correspondent. You say you have rethe South than during the ante bellum days, fore the country. After that this is done, ceived no message from him; but have you sent him any communication? Senator. Not yet.

> Correspondent. Do you intend to do so RETRACTION TO BE DEMANDED ON SATUR- pared it with much care, and showed it weaker person may sometimes be allowa. who assails me and publishes his intention must see to it that other satisfaction is ten- nized me. ble; other and grosser forms of outrage by negroes, where the victims are white wo- the peril of his life. As to the code, I do have placed me in. He had the last say correspondent took leave of the Senator, justified in calling public attention to the remarks of Senator Sprague, and demanded a public retraction as broad and full as the imputation. That was my object in planation. Had Sprague been present Senate, or committing any act that would have disgraced the body to which I have the honor to belong. I would have waited another opportunity outside the Senate to becoming a necessary institution to this demand satisfaction of another kind. Correspondent. Some people here say > that true, Senator? Senator. Not exactly. At least I did Senator Wilson-that if Sprague should January.-Ral. Sentinel. refuse me either a retraction or satisfaction I would then slap his face or insult him in some other way that would make him show fight. I did not mean by that that I would Mayor and City Council. slap him in the Senate, but outside, where Senator. Doubt! I can see none. "Satisfaction in some way!" Yes, we shoot him dead. Public opinion here, it it.) You will see, sir, the way in which he hope; for that may be had in a perfectly cannot be denied, goes with the Rhode uses the terms "mustiff" and "puppy legal way without endangering the lives of Islander. People are all asking what Mr. dog," in his remarks as printed in the innocent bystanders, women, children, Abbott will do? It is felt that if he does Globe. He says, (reading.) "In answer reporters and editors. We advise a law- not do something, after his brave words, to the tirade of the Senator from Nevada suit, and recommend for employment our he will be exactly at the place where the and the Senator from North Carolina, I coming down to a "satisfaction in some the whole, a tragedy is expected, unless tering a mastiff and a mongrel puppy dog; then, frightened at his temerity, ran howlhaving seen five hundred cats! The num- A correspondent of the New York Herald ing away, followed by his larger comthing, certainly it was that Nye was a mas tiff and I a puppy dog. What else could the man mean? It was bunglingly expondent next proceeded to the lodgings of pressed, to be sure, but that was his mis-

> Correspondent. Don't you think the rooms on Thirteenth street, near F, in a mastiff is the most odious in the compari-Senator. I have nothing to do with the old Southern frankness and geniality .- mastiff, sir. The mastiff can take care of When your correspondent was ushered in- himself-[laughing]-I am the puppy dog

> > Mr. Marin. Sprague certainly had no

the affair in another method.

excitement?

SPRAGUE AWARE THAT A RETRACTION WOULD rod and in the other the fatal weapon .- American. BE DEMANDED.

Correspondent. Did Sprague know that you intended to make this demand before- also used the rammer to start the trigger.

Correspondent. The city has been full make personal explanation about the reer having moderated, the only surviving boat put | credits yourself and Senator Sprague with | thereupon jumped up and exclaimed that if he was to be attacked again he wanted BY Senator, (laughing heartily.) Indeed, to give notice that he would talk all night. His object in saying this I understood to Correspondent. Yes, Senator, and what be to give me a warning that he would occupy the whole time of the Senate in talk-Senator, (laughing). Well, sir, I am ing till the hour of adjournment, so as to day on the suit of J. Russell Young, managing prevent me from having a chance to make editor of the Tribune, for libel Correspondent. Then I am to under- any personal explanation.

Correspondent. They say Sprague went dispatches. away after this?

Senator. Yes, sir; he got up and went away, and then I found myself in a curious fix. I felt it incumbent on me to demand The Conservative State Convention met to-day. an explanation, but found Sprague not Two hundred delegates representing fifty counwhen the Senate doors were thrown open nated in 1867, all sent in their resignations. to the public. That enabled me to place myself right before the public and left it to Sprague to take the next step. I said he skulked away. It is his place to notice that; but if he don't he will hear from me in the morning, as I said before. It is not called another Senator a "mutton head," the three suspicious vessels off Vuelta Abago. and two others "pukes." (Here the Senator smiled.) What can he mean by such conduct? NOT VERY HARD ON SPRAGUE. Senator. Yes, sir. That kind of chiv- I don't think I said anything particu-Senator. Yes, sir. That kind of chiv- I don't think I said anything particu- The Corps Legislatif adjourned sine die, amid cline, and during the day the price gave way, alry, at least, remains. In the town where larly ill of him to call forth such extreme nearly equal cries of "Vive la Empereur," and closing at 44 cents. Since then the market gen-I live I am known as one who is not in the epithets. The worst I said in any speech "Vive la Liberte." habit of allowing anybody to insult him .- during the day was that the criticism of They know we well there, and know that Burnside came from one who never apif any man calls me a hard name or other- peared upon the field but in one engagewise affronts me, that man has either to ment, and who retired from that field with no more than common credit. That was

A SLY HIT AT A CARPET-BAGGER.

I suppose, however, he said something was going about hunting up the names of Correspondent. Have you seen Sprague the lawyers of the Senate. I looked at him when he asked me the question and answered by saying, "What State are you from yourself? Are you from Nebraska or Nevada, or Kansas?" He looked up at me and said, "Really, Senator, I don't know I, sir, really know which is your State. I in search of." Sprague thereupon left me.

A PUT UP JOB AND AN IMPARTIAL PRESIDING

Correspondent. That really happened, Serator? Senator. Certainly, sir. As to my speech which gave him so much offence, I prebeforehand to Senator Anthony. You know the whole thing was put up. It was man's or woman's reputation that is dragged in the dust; all this is lawful, but do do not think I could rest a moment with a ged in the dust; all this is lawful, but do do not think I could rest a moment with a gress of June 17th, 1862.

The oath on being read not touch the person. Fisticusts on a hostile hand on my shoulder, and the man any further. But if he declines, then I ny understood the programme and recog-

STATE NEWS.

A RETURN.-Mr. Finch, of this town, when the opportunity was offered last night has just returned from a trip to Illinois. I should have asked him aloud in the Sen- Dont, t like-a bit. Corn was selling for ate whether he intended by his remarks to 16cts a bushel at Decatur when he left-but apply the term "puppy" to me. If he the people were cold and selfish, and clithen answered "yes," I should have sat mate colder Says "I have travelled over a down quietly in my seat, for I never for a hard State of moment designed violating the rules of the heap of States, but North Carolina is the steam 18@18. Cotton quiet at 281@281 cents. best of all." That's so. Hillsboro Recorder.

OLD NORTH STATE FOUNDRY. - This is section. The foundry and plow factory are that you threatened to slap Sprague's face | well managed by Mr. Separks. The wants in case he should refuse to apologize. Is of the community demand an enlargement the nail on the head, for Plantation Bitters are of its operations. It is owned by B. P. not only made of pure material, but the people Williamson, Esq. We are told that 1500 are told what they are made of, as the recipe is not say I would slap his face in the Senate. plows have been manufactured and sold What I said was this-I believe it was from this establishment since the first of

NEWBERNE is in a state of excitement growing out of a difficulty between the SEIZUBE OF TOBACCO.-We understand that Revenue Collector Wright and Deupty duellist." How then did he acquire the vernacular, and use the terms so happily? We would have sworn that he had been initiated into all the mysteries, only he less too many persons know what he meant to the monomanisc. Up to this time no affray has taken place between him to be hampeled by fulles and that Revenue Collector Wright and Deupty restraints like those that very properly prevail in all legislative and deliberative and thirty-five boxes of unbranded tobacco between him time no affray has taken place between him to be hampeled by fulles and that Revenue Collector Wright and Deupty restraints like those that very properly prevail in all legislative and deliberative and thirty-five boxes of unbranded tobacco between him time no affray has taken place between him the seizures were made we are the control of the serious control of th do, Threats of this kind, in this Senate. - and Mr. Abbott. Mr. Sprague walked out | Correspondent. I suppose you have no did not learn. - New Berne Jour, of Com.

TON, N. C .- We learned last evening the particulars of the suicide, on Saturday Bances, night, of a most estimable citizen of North | M. 10 00 @15 00 | Molasses, & ga'lon Carolina, Mr. Hartwell Harding, a resident of Northampton county, about three miles from the Pleasant Hill count on the P

The facts connected with the case, as far as we have been able to gather them, are about as follows :

him to brood over his misfortune, so as to Corron Basoing, cause unusual fits of depression. Recently, Gunny, avd 21 de Dundee. 26 @ however, he determined to take the bene- Rope, Wh. 7 @ fit of the bankrupt act, and whilst his sad- Conn MEAL, ness and moodiness seemed unabated, yet bushel. i 15 @ 1 20 his friends hoped that this step would afford him some quiet and respite from his of his affairs he would resume his accus- FEATEKES, tomed cheerfulness. Such, however, was Fish, & bbt., not to be his fate; for during the past Mackerel, week his property was advertised by the U. S. Marshal to be sold, and his gloominess seemed to increase as the time of the sale approached ; indeed, within the pres- Herring, ent month the impression fast settled in the minds of all that he was deranged, many occurrences not only causing but many occurrences not only causing but do gross, 0 00 @ 7 00 Hams.....20 @ substantiating the impression. Some time Dry Cod, # 15 9 @ 10 Middlings....18 @ ago he disappeared, and after a continued FLOUR, & bbl., Northern Shoulders . . . 151@ Senator. Well, there need be no foll search through the day, he was discovered Family... 7 50 @15 0 Lard, N. C... 20 @ loll about it. It has simply come to this, in an upper room, which he had not enterthat Mr. Sprague must either retract or do ed in five years. He was there in a state NORTH CAROLINA. worse. If I was from New England, per. of stupor and it was even feared that he Family...11 50 @12 00 Cheese......18 @ haps I would put up with such insults might have taken some parcotic. This Superfine. 11 00 @11 25 Pork, Northern, # bbl. haps I would put up with such insults might have taken some bat some. This GLUE, $2 lb. 20 @ 23 City Mess 33 50 @34 00 meekly; but not being from that peaceful was but an indication of what was soon to GUNNY BAGS. 30 @ 32 Thin " 32 50 @33 00 region I shall take the liberty of settling be his tragic end, for Sunday night, long Guano, Peruvian, Correspondent. Sumner took quite a that he slipped out of bed very quietly, as Grain, & bushel, prominent part last night in quelling the not even his wife who occupied the room Corn 0 96 @ 1 05 Alum, bush. 0 50 @ 60 Senator. Oh, yes, of course; and it was his having left the bed until she was Rice, rough 50 @ 1 75 from store. 2 15 @ 2 20 his interference that made me moderate awakened by the report of a gun, which Carolina, 10 @ 101 American... 170 @ 1 80 my language. I was afraid he intended to she thought the noise was occasioned by HIDES, & b., make charges against me for violating the some falling body. Immediately after bry land the some falling body. rules of the Senate, and therefore I ex- this, missing him from the bed, she got Hay, # 100 lbs., plained that I was no duelist, but that I up and in searching about the room she Eastern... 1 05 @ simply intended to demand a retraction in found him dead, lying in a pool of blood. open Senate or satisfaction outside the with the entire front portion of his head blown off. In one hand he held the ram-

Senator. I was informed that he had and was esteemed and respected by all who Petersberg Index.

LATEST NEWS TELEGRAPH.

From New York,

New York, April 28-Noon. Charles A. Dana, of the Sun, was arrested to-The Sun's article implicates Young in receiving

From Richmond.

RICHMOND, VA., April 28-Noon, present to give one. What could I do? I ties were present. R. T. Daniel was chosen could only speak as I did subsequently, President. The Conservative candidates nomi-

BY HAVANA CABLE.

HAVANA, April 28-Noon. It is reported that the revolutionary Governor of Sagua Villa has been captured. The Spanish vessel Union has captured two of

CABLE DISPATCHES.

Paris, April 28-Noon. The Corps Legislatif adjourned sine die, amid

From Washington,

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28-P. M. The Secretary of the War has ordered the resumption of recruiting.

Mr. Borie of the Navy, and Mr. Rawlins of the War Department and the President, consulted today. The object is unknown. Mr. Borie and President Grant will make an excursion down the Potomac to-morrow in the Tuesday steamer Tallapoosa. Since the 4th of March, one hundred and nineteen Assessors, and one hundred and twenty-two Collectors have been appointed.

Capt. Daniel Amman has been appointed Chief of the Bureau of the Navy Yard and Docks, vice 200 casks on 20th May at 421@43 cents, 200 casks Admiral Smith resigned.

elections in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas. The Secretary of the Interior decides that six months abandonment of a homestead, forfeits it. the Pacific railroad commissionership tendered For the lower grades there is some enquiry, but Dally, Mr. A. W. WATSON, of Salisbury, N. C., want of stock prevents transactions of any mohim by President Grant. The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says he has authority for saying that Gen- 2. For the medium grades there is little or no eral Lee will visit President Grant in a day or Senator. I do, sir. I shall wait patiently arranged that Nye should speak first, then Wm. Hone vs. James Rives, (insurance company), 717 bbls. at $1 90 for strained, $5 for No. 1, $5 until to-morrow. Then, not having heard from him, I shall address him a short note and then myself in defence of Burnside; subscribe to the iron clad oath of the act of Constrained $3 for No. 1 and $5 75 for Pale; Wedness ress of June 17th, 1862.

The oath on being read to them, every juror in strained and No. 2, and $3 25 for No. 1—all & bbl. the box left and the case fell through from the of 280 ths. want of a jury.

Marine Intelligence. CHARLESTON, S. C., April 28-P. M. Sailed-Steamer Saragossa for New York.

New York Market, New York, April 29-Noon.

Money easy at 7 & cent. premium. Sterling for city made, as in quantity and quality. Exchange 109. Gold 134. Five-twenties of '62. 1211. North Carolina Sixes 602; new 532. Virginia Sixes, 581; new 624. Tennessee Sixes, ex- on the hoof at prices ranging from 10 to 14 cents coupons 69: new 681. Flour unchanged. Wheat spring 1@2 cents

Spirits Turpentine moderately active at 471. -Boein firm-strained 22 60. Freights dull. The New York Tribune says the reason why PLANTATION BITTERS are so generally used is owing to the fact that they are always made up to the original standard, and of pure material, let the price be what it wil . The Tribune just hits!

wrapped around each bottle. Don't go home without a botte. MAGNOLIA WATER. - Superior to the best im ported German Cologne, and sold at half the

ROSADALIS

For Sale by Druggists Everywhere,

BRESWAL B 40 @ from the Pleasant Hill depot, on the P. & CANDLES, & D.,
Tallow.....18 @ 21 Syrup, bbls. 60 @ 1 00 Turpentine # 280 lbs. Virgin New0 0 0 4 25 COFFEE, # 1b., Yellow dip.0 00 @ 2 75 Since the close of the war, Mr. Harding, 28 Hard.... 0 00 @ 1 65 21 Tar, # bbl.0 00 @ 2 40 Laguayra... 26 / who owned a fine estate in the county, became, like the rest of Southern farmers, Corrox, & fb. 28 Tar, in ordi 0 00 @ 2 60 St. Domingo. 25 @ pec miarily involved and his necessities Ord. to Mid's 25 @ Pitch, City 3 00 @ 3 25 265 Rosin, pale 5 00 @ 7 00 pressed so heavily upon him that it led Strict Mid'g 00 @ 264 do No. 1..2 50 @ 5 00 do No. 2 .1 90 @ 1 95 do No. 3. .1 85 @ 0 00 28 |Spirits Turpentine, ₩ gai..... 00 @ NAILS, & D., Ons, # gallon, Sperm....0 00 @ 3 00 Linseed...1 40 @ 1 50 annoyances, and that with the settlement | Yarn, #5 152 00 @ 2 05 | Machinery.1 75 @ 2 00 75 | Kerosene....40 @ 42 PEA NUTS, 2 00 @ 2 10 POTATOES, Irish, % bbl2 50 @ 3 00 No. 1....22 00 @25 00 No. 2...18 00 @20 00 Provisions, 78 h., N. C. Bacon Mullets ... 7 50 @ 10 00 | Hams 19 @ | Herring 18 @ Shoulders....16 @ N.C.roe, 0 00 @ 0 00 | Hog round. 18 @ do cut, 8 50 @ 9 00 Fine..... 6 00 @ 6 25 Butter, N. C. 30 @ Prime, ...30 00 @31 00 after the family had retired it is presumed Per ton. 80 00 @00 00 Rump....00 00 @31 50 with him, heard him and knew nothing of Peas, Cow. 1 05 @ 1 121 Cargo ... 0 00 @ 2 00 SUGAR, & Ib., 91 Ouca00 @ 20 Porto Rico. . 00 @ C...16 @ B....00 @ Northern..0 65 @ Orushed. ... 00 @ SOAP, # Ib. 10 || Northern, ... 7 @ Wilmington, Ext. Family, 101@ sheer.. 9 @ From indications on the ramrod, it is pre-Swede..... 10 @ 12 | Family 10 @ sumed that he tried the gun to ascertain whether it was loaded, and very probably, Pale..... Liquors, & gal., (dom.) SHINGLES, & M. Mr. Harding was about 67 years of age Whiskey, .. 1 50 @ 2 25 Contract .. 4 00 @ 6 00 Senator. I was informed that he had heard of my intention, but don't know who knew him. He leaves a wife and three Gin......4 00 @ 7 00 W.O. bbl 00 00 @30 00 Senator, (smiling). Oh, I see your meantold him. You see it came up first while children, one of his daughters being marwe were in executive session. I rose and ried to Dr. Turner, of Northampton.

R.O. hhd 00 00 @00 00

There we were in executive session. I rose and ried to Dr. Turner, of Northampton. do Peach 3 00 @ 3 50 Shipping. 12 00 @14 00

REVIEW

Fl'r Bds. .15 00 @17 00 Mill Fair 7 00 @ 8 00

TALLOW, B...10 @ 11

Wide do .12 00 @14 00 Mill, inferior to

Scantling 10 00 @12 00

WILMINGTON MARKETS

WEEK ENDING THURSDAY, April 29, 1869.

TURPENTINE. - The market opened on Friday last at a slight advance on previous quotations, but has since declined 5 cents on hard, and closes steady at $4 25 for new virgin, $2 75 for yellow dip, and $1 65 for hard, # 280 lbs., with a moderate enquiry for distilling purposes. The receipts continue very light, and for the week just ended bave been confined to small parcels, the sales comprising only 307 bbls., as follows : Virgin. Yellow Dip. Hard. Bbls. 96 $4 25 $2 75 $1 70 Saturday ... 4 25 2 75 Monday ... Tuesday. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—In the market for this article there was rather a firmer feeling on Friday last, and it opened at a shade advance, sales being made at 44 @45 cents. On Saturday there was less disposition to operate, unless at a deerally has ruled quiet, and prices have steadily declined each day, closing on Wednesday at 41h cents. No sales reported this morning up to the time of closing our enquiries. The receipts for the week have been somewhat better, and the bulk has generally been sold upon arrival-leaving only a small quantity in receivers' hands.—

e quote sales as follows: Friday 75 casks at 441 cents # gallon. 100 Saturday Monday Wednesday 100 "

*N. Y. packages. lows: Monday, 100 casks on 20th June at 401 cts., on 15th May at 421 cents; Tuesday, 100 casks on 5th May at 421 cents, 100 casks between 1st and Nothing whatever has transpired regarding the 5th May at 422 cents, and 100 casks between 1st and 15t May at 42 cents; Wednesday, 200 casks on 15th and 20th May at 41 cents.

Rostn.-During the week just coded the market has ruled with less activity, and prices of all Mr. Greeley, of the New York Tribune, declines qualities are a shade lower than given in our last. ment, and we quote the market as closing quiet | man Eckel, of Wilmington, N. C. but steady at $1 85 for strained and $1 90 for No. demand at present, and sales limited. The finer grades of new crop are being brought in more freely, but there is only a small stock on market, and buyers are not operating to any exfent in an-From Georgia.

SAVANNAH, GA., April 28—P. M.

In the U. S. District Court to-day the case of Wm. Hope vs. James Rives. (insurance company).

Mr. Hope vs. James Rives. (insurance company). strained, $3 for No. 1, and $5 75 for Pale; Wednes-

> TAR-Advanced 5 cents on Friday last, and the market has since ruled steady at $2 40, closing with a fair demand from shippers. The week's receipts foot up 895 bbls., all of which sold at $2 BARRELS .- The market continues to be very well supplied with empty spirit barrels, and the demand is light. We hear of only small sales from wharf at the following figures: Second hand, $2@$2 10 for lots as they run, and $2 20@ $2 25 for selected;—new $2 25@$2 50 for country, $2 75@$3 60 for New York, and $2 50@$2 75 each BREF CATTLE.—The supply in butchers' hands is quite small, but fully sufficient for present wants. A few lots have been received and sold

B., as in quality.
CORN MEAL.—Full stock in the granaries, and better-common 2 cents better. Corn unchanged. only a small business doing at $1 15@$1 20 # Corron -The market has generally ruled inactive for this article during the week, the stock here being held at figuree above the views of buyers. The sales have been confined to a few small lots at 26 cents for low middling, and 261 cents for middling. IRON BANDS AND TIES for Cotton are in moderate stock, and sell from store at the following figures : Arrow Tie, 8 cents ; Sweet's Buckle Tie, 8 cents; Wailey's Buckle Tie, 84 cents; Beard's Buckle and Lock Tie, 8; cents; and Dillion's 8 | Hon. R. W. Best, cents # 16. Eggs - Are brought in slowly, and sell in small let at 22@25 cents @ dozen.

FERTILIZERS-The market is well supplied with! nearly all kinds, and there is a moderate business doing from store at the following prices: Peruvian Guano, $00@$80; Pacific do. $00@$60; Wando Guano, $00@$80; Pacific do. $00@$60; Wando Guano, $70; Patapase do. $65; Phœnix do. $55; Wilcox, Gibbs & Co's Manipulated do. $70; E. F. Coe's Superphosphate of Lime, $60; Baugh's Baw Bone Phosphate, $60; Whiteleck's Cerealizer $70; Chesapeake Phosphate, $60; Lister Bros Superphosphate of Lime $65; Whann's Raw Bone Superphosphate, $70; Ledi Manufacturing Co. Pure Bone $48; do do double refined Poudrette $28; do do Nit. phosphate Lime $58—all $2 ton of $2,000 bs.

FLOUR - We have nothing new to report in this article for the week. The supply of Northern brands continues good, and there is a moderate business doing from store at quotations given in table, according to quantity and quality.

Grain—The Corn market rules about the same

SUICIDE OF A RESIDENT OF NORTHAMP Wilmington Wholesale Prices Current, as noted in our last review. There is a full stock in dealers' hands, and the demand is principally for retail lots. We quote sales from wharf of 350 bu hels at 971 cents; and 2,000 bushels Maryland at $1@$1 05, bags included, as in quantity. From tore we qu to as selling at $1@$1 071 B bushel. as in quantity ---- OATS-Are in mer ly retail at 85 cents & bushel. PEAS Cow are in moderate demand, and fair supply on market. A car-go of 1,700 bushels was received and sold on Monday at $1 $ bushel. Small lots are bringing $1 05@$1 10. White are in demand and very few on market. We quote at $1 60@$1 70 $ bushel ---- Rice--Clean is in light stock, and merely a retail enquiry. Carolina sells at 10@10d cents

HAY.—The market is fully supplied and prices are lower. About 700 bales Northern received for the week and sold from wharf at 65@75 cents & 100 fbs. No receipts of Eastern, and last sales Ware at $1 05@$1 10. LIME-Is in good stock, and demand limited. A cargo of 1,700 casks was received on Monday. which is selling at $1 50 from wharf, and $1 60 LUMBER-Is unchanged, and market fully sup lied. We give the following as cargo price : Pine Steam Sawed Lumber - Cargo rates -per 1,000 feet. Ordinary assortment Cuba cargoes, $20 00 @ 21 00 Hayti cargoes, 18 00 @ 00 00 Fuil cargoes wide Boards...... 20 00 @ 22 00 flooring boards, rough 22 00 @ 23 00 Ship Stuff as # specifications..... 23 00 @ 24 00 Deals, 3 by 9..... full stock of Cubs in dealers' hands. The sales for the week have been principally of small lots at prices quoted in table, according to quantity and quality PEA NUTS-Have ruled for the week about the same as noted in our last. Only a few seattering lots have been brought in, and sold from carts at $2@$2 10 3 bushel for prime to extra. Several parcels are held on market for which above figures are offered, but holders are asking higher

POTATOES,-Irish are dull, and sell from store at $2@$2 50 % bbl. Sweet are scarce, and sell at $1 50@$1 60 % bushel. POULTRY-Is brought in sparingly, and is in de mand at high figures. We quote live fowls as selling at 50 @ 60 cents each. Provisions. - In the market for North Carolina cured Bacon we have nothing new to report for the week. There is very little enquiry for retailing purposes at present, and there is a moderate stock in dealers' hands. The sales have been confined to a few small lots, and we quote at 17 cents for shoulders, 18@19 cents for sides, 18@19 cents for hog round, and 19@20 cents lb. for hams-lowest figures being nearer the market. Western is in full stock, and the demand is principally for retail lots. We quote at 15 @16 cents for shoulders, 18@18 cents for sides, and 17@20 cents # b. for hams, as in quality.——LARD.—Market bare of North Caroina, and quotations nominal at 20@22 cents. Northern is in fair stock, and sells from store at figures ranging from 161 to 21 cents # 1b., as in quality. --- Ponk-is unchanged, and Northern is in moderate stock. We quote merely a retail business doing from store at figures given in

SALT-Is in limited request, and very little on market. We quote from store at $1 75@$1 80 7 sack for American. SHINGLES-Only small boat loads coming which are taken for building purposes at $3@$3

50 W M. for Common. TIMBER-Has been brought in very slowly durie week just closed, and the market rule dull for all descriptions—though prime and extra is generally taken for mill purposes when brought to market. We refer to our table for classified prices, at which sales have been effected. Woop-In full supply. Sells by the boat load at $2 50 for pine and ash, an $2 75@$3 $8 cord for

FREIGHTS-We have nothing new to report in rates to coastwise ports. Produce is offered sparingly at present, and in about sufficient quantities for vessels as they come in. See table for Per Steamer. TO NEW YORK. drude Turpentine per bbl. $0 00 @ $0 55 $ Rosin,.....per bale. Cotton Goods, . . per bale. 1 00 @ 1 25 Flaxseed,.....per bush. TO PHILADELPHIA Crude Turpentine per bbl. 0 00 @ Rosin,.... Cotton Goods ...per bale. 1 25 @ 1 56 0 00 @ Pea Nuts,. 00 @ 12% Lumber..... 00 00 @ 9 00 00 00 00 TO BALTIMORE.

Crude Turpentine per bbl. 00 0 @ 0 55 0 00 @ TO BOSTON. Orude Turpentine per bbl. 0 00 @ 0 00 0 00 @

WILMINGTON MONEY MARKET,

N. C. Bonds, old..... Wilmington City Bonds, 8 # ct. BANK NOTES. Buy. Sell. 00 Lexington 10 Bank of N. 00 Min'rs & Plant's'36 Farmers' Bank, .30 00 Wilmington, 38 Merchants'55 00 Wadesboro',....30 Charlotte, Commercial 00 Greensboro' Mut 5 Fayetteville,....11 00 Clarendon..... 3 Roxboro',.... 00 Yanceyville 3 00 Thomasville 20 Washington,. Lex'gtn at Gra'm20

MARRIED. In this city on the 28th inst., by the Rev. J. H.

On the 20th April, 1869, at St. Paul's Church, Woodville, Mississippi, by the Rev. F. W. Adams, Rector of St. Paul's Church, New Orleans, La., Col. JNO. L. CANTWELL, of Wilmington, N. C., to Miss KATE THEODOSIA BLOUNT, of Wood-

FOR THE LOCATION OF

Northern and European Settlers, FOR THE SALE OF mproved Farms, Timber, and Mineral Lands, Houses, Mines, Water Power, &c., &c., Also of Cotton Tobac.

co, Naval Stores, &c., on Consignment, ADVANCES MADE ON SAME.

AGENTS FOR MPROVED AGRICULTURAL IM-PLEMENTS, FERTILIZERS. MACHINERY, &c.

ALSO. NEGOTIATE LOANS ON MORTGAGE OR OTHER SECURITIES. Those having Lands or Farms for sale will find to their interest to communicate with this Company. No charge made unless a sale is effected, then only five per cent.

B. W. BEST..... Secretary and Treasurer. AGENTS AND DIRECTORS AT BALEIGH :

Col. Geo. Little R. Kingsland, Geo. W. Swepson GENTS AND DIRECTORS IN NEW YORK AND BOSTON A. J. Bleecker, Son & Co.

Raleigh, N. C., March, 1869.

FROM 4 to 350 HORSE POWER, including the celebrated Cor-liss Cut-off Engines, Slide Valve Stationary Engines, Portable Engines, &c. Also, ircular, Mulayand Gang Saw Mills, Sugar Cane Mills, Shaft-ing, Pulleys, &c., Lath and Shingle Mills, Wheat and Corn Mills, Circular Saws, Belting. utar and Price List.

WOOD & MANN STEAM ENG. CO., Utles, New York,